

GREEN COUNTY NITROGEN WINTER WORKSHOP

March 14th 10am-3pm

Albany Lions Club

402 Cincinnati St., Albany, WI

Agenda

Morning Focused on Agriculture Nitrogen Management for Farmers

- 10:00-10:05 • Welcome & Introductions
- 10:05-10:50 • Economics of Nutrient Management Planning and Innovative Nitrogen Management- Daniel H Smith
- 10:50-11:20 • Nitrogen Management and Agriculture Water Quality- Chelsea Zegler
- 11:20-11:30 • Break
- 11:30-12:00 • Farmer Panel on Nitrogen Management- Tonya Gratz
- 12:00-1:00 • Lunch and Chat

Afternoon Focused on Nitrogen Management Considerations for Landowners

- 1:00-1:15 • Nitrates and WI Ground Water- Kevin Masarik
- 1:15-1:30 • USDA-NRCS Land Management Cost-Share Opportunities- NRCS
- 1:30-2:15 • Soil Health for Land Owners- Josh Kamps
- 2:15-2:20 • Landscape Nitrogen Management- Daniel H. Smith
- 2:20-2:30 • Break
- 2:30-3:00 • Testing Wells for Nitrates- Green County Health Department
- 3:00 • Adjourn

This event will provide farmers and landowners opportunities to share and learn more about managing nitrogen on their fields, properties, and landscapes. In addition, attendees will learn about the environmental impacts of nitrogen and how to test their well for nitrates.

Registration Required:

<https://forms.gle/meDBKfrjSgxKkYXp8>.

Lunch is generously sponsored by:

Contact for more info: 608-325-4195 x120

